

Website Accessibility Policy

The Adams & Remers website is designed to be accessible to as many people as possible, including visitors with disabilities and people using a wide range of web browsers, screen readers and assistive technologies.

We aim to make this site possible for anyone to use, but we are aware that some visitors may still experience difficulties. If you have any problems using our site, please contact us by filling in our Enquiry Form or by email at reception@adamsandremers.com

Standards Compliance

All pages on this site comply with the W3C Web Accessibility Initiative's priority 1 guidelines from Web Content Accessibility Guidelines, version 1.0. The site also complies with most of the priority 2 and 3 guidelines.

All pages are valid HTML (XHTML 1.0 Strict) and use structural mark-up, such as headers which your browser may be able to use to help you move around within a page.

JavaScript

This site does not require JavaScript. All the functionality of the site will work, and all links can be followed, if JavaScript is turned off or not supported in your browser. JavaScript is used to provide some enhancements for visitors whose browsers support it, but it may occasionally interfere with the accessibility features of web browsers. If you have difficulty using the site it may help if you turn JavaScript off.

If you have JavaScript enabled, all links to external websites will open in new windows. If this is inconvenient, you can stop it happening by turning off JavaScript in your browser.